coming from on the dollar. I thought it was a dollar and dime. Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Mr. President, members of the body, Senator Bohlke, a couple questions.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Would you yield?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Will you yield, yes?

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes.

SENATOR HARTNETT: What's your...you know, we're talking about this lop-off and what's your guesstimation of dollars? Is that...do you...

SENATOR BOHLKE: If you go to the...

SENATOR HARTNETT: I...and I...

SENATOR BOHLKE: Did you pick up the printout?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I did pick it up, yeah. I...Senator Stuhr brought me one, yeah.

SENATOR BOHLKE: If you will go to the last page, the very last page of the printout and you will go to the column that is the third from the right, it says...or the fourth from the right, it says "lop-off adjustment".

SENATOR HARTNETT: Okay.

SENATOR BOHLKE: And you go to the bottom and that shows $10,736,665.73.

SENATOR HARTNETT: That's the amount, then. Also, Senator Bohlke, on your amendment 2217, the last on the second page, for the districts reorganized, state aid and so forth, what number of formula students, what is that, just a average daily student? Is that it?
